

Wednesday, January 28.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Shirley of Anderson is the guest of Mrs. R. G. Lee.

Mr. Wad Allen was a guest here in his old home Monday.

Mrs. W. B. Cogburn is spending this week in Augusta with Mrs. Carroll Cogburn.

Miss Elizabeth Smith has returned from Washington where she had a most delightful visit.

Mr. W. W. Adams, Misses Lillie Adams and Mae Tompkins have gone to Washington and New York.

The recent heavy rainfall is as favorable for boll weevil propagation as it is unfavorable for building operations.

Miss Nellie Bryan of the Meeting Street section is now with the Yonce and Mooney Company as stenographer and book keeper.

The Chamber of Commerce will hold a meeting in the Court House on Monday evening at 7:30 instead of Thursday evening of this week.

Mr. A. Daitch, successor to Daitch Brothers, has been greatly pleased with his splendid sale, the only sale of the kind that he has conducted since locating in Edgefield.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Mr. A. Daitch in which he announces the continuance of his sale for ten days longer. Come and see what he has to show you.

Mr. W. Hamp Morgan was a visitor in Edgefield Sunday. His friends are pleased to learn that he has come on this side of the Savannah to reside, being now located in the Meriwether section.

Mrs. S. B. Mays was carried to Augusta Monday to the Hospital where she will undergo a surgical operation. Her friends hope that it will be altogether successful and that she will soon be fully restored to her usual state of health.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Quarles and little son H. E. Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Asbill joined the Baptist church Sunday morning by letter, Mr. and Mrs. Quarles and son coming from Red Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Asbill from first Baptist church of Anderson.

See the attractive advertisement of J. Rubenstein in this issue of The Advertiser. Now is the time and opportunity to take advantage of what the advertisement brings to you. Make a list of what you want and get it while the occasion is favorable.

Dr. R. G. Lee will begin a series of sermons on the Ten Commandments Sunday morning at the Baptist church. These commandments are the foundation principles on which our government is based. Let us hear all of these expositions of their meaning from Dr. Lee.

The Edgefield Public Library is open each Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. The cost is ten cents per month. Miss Marie Abney is in charge of the Library now under the supervision of the Civic League. The Library rooms are over the Edgefield Fruit Store on the same floor as the office of Mr. George F. Mims.

Miss Edith Ouzts who will be at home for the week-end will probably remain over and give a reading. She has recently returned from Des Moines, Iowa, where she attended the great Students' Volunteer Convention.

As Mrs. Ouzts will be in attendance on the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Watson of Ridge Spring on Monday, the meeting will take place on Tuesday.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our gratitude to the many friends and loved ones who so kindly ministered to us in the sad illness and death of my beloved wife, Mary Bryan. We cannot give full expression to all that we feel for the lavish manifestations of sympathy bestowed on us.

ALVIN BRYAN.

FOR RENT or SALE: A farm of 500 acres five miles south of Edgefield. Apply to Box 5, R. F. D. NO 1.

North Augusta, S. C.

A Musical Treat for Edgefield.

John Morrison, the celebrated Irish singer, assisted by Miss Elsie Clifton, a musician of note on the piano, will offer some real Irish selections both vocal and instrumental.

Both Mr. Morrison and Miss Clifton are well known on the vaudeville stage, having played on the well known Keith Circuit for a number of seasons.

In connection with the real musical treat, there will be a feature picture which will make the program more attractive, if that is possible.

"Silver Threads Among the Gold," starring the noted actor, Richard J. Jose, who has had the honor of taking the lead in some of the most prominent pictures of the screen today. You who know this beautiful ballad will, no doubt, welcome the chance to see it portrayed on the screen.

Your only chance to see this wonderful combined attraction will be at the Edgefield Theatre next Friday evening at 8:15.

Sad Death of Mrs. Alvin Bryan

Mrs. Alvin Bryan died at her home near Meeting Street on Friday night the 23rd after a week or more of great suffering, having been accidentally burned when her hair and clothing became ignited. She was Miss Mary Cogburn before her marriage about ten years ago, the fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Cogburn. She was twenty-seven years of age and leaves three small children, Ernest, 6 years of age, Mary, 4, and Leila Margaret 2.

Mrs. Bryan was a member of Stevens Creek church from whence she was buried on Saturday, her pastor, Rev. H. E. White officiating. He had spent some time in the home during her illness, and had been a great comfort and stay as she realized that life was ebbing away.

The pall bearers were Messrs. John, Ernest, Homer, Price, Ollie and Jake Bryan, Mr. Bryan's brothers. Mr. Trapp Bryan of Thomson, Ga., came over, but was obliged to leave before the funeral.

The sympathy and love of all Edgefield goes out to the bereaved husband and children, mother and father in the passing away of this beloved young woman.

Lee and Jackson Celebration.

On Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock the local chapter U. D. C. celebrated the birthdays of Lee and Jackson in the High School auditorium.

Mr. J. H. Cantelou presided over the meeting and seated on the platform were Dr. R. G. Lee, Rev. G. W. M. Taylor, Rev. P. P. Blalock, Mrs. A. A. Woodson, Misses Elise Hudgens, June Nicholson and Eleanor Mims.

The following is the program: Invocation, Dr. R. G. Lee.

Chorus by the Bald Eagle chapter, "Our Southland."

Poem, Birthdays of Lee and Jackson, Miss Gladys Rives, president of the local U. D. C.

Miss Elise Hudgens gave a reading, "Stonewall Jackson," followed by a vocal duet, "Let us pass over the river," by Mrs. Waring and Miss Hortense Woodson.

Readings were given by Miss Eleanor Mims and Miss June Nicholson, the latter giving from memory, the "Sword of Lee."

The address was given by Rev. G. W. M. Taylor who spoke on the life of Lee and Jackson. Mr. Taylor spoke from personal experience of his visits to the three homes of Lee and reminiscences which he had heard from friends and acquaintances of the Southland's chieftain. The address was both interesting and instructive.

Dixie sung to new and appropriate words was sung by the Bald Eagle chapter and Rev. P. P. Blalock pronounced the benediction.

Citizens of Edgefield!!!

We want you to list your spare rooms with us for Transient Lodgers and Visitors who come to Edgefield daily and have no place to sleep. Help us to give them quarters.

DEPT. GENERAL WELFARE, BOARD OF COMMERCE, S. B. Nicholson, Chairman.

Notice!!

All returned soldiers who have paid their poll and road tax for the year 1919 will please bring their tax receipt to my office and I will refund their money as provided in a special act of the 1919 session of the legislature.

J. L. PRINCE, County Treasurer.

Keep an eye on Edgefield. Watch it grow.

YONCE & MOONEY.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock the W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. J. P. Ouzts. All members are urged to be present and bring dues for the year. The following will be the program:

Subject, Law Enforcement. Devotions, (Psalm 12. Hymns "My Soul be on thy guard" and "My Country 'tis of Thee," Mrs. E. J. Norris. Study on Citizenship, Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman.

"The Little Union Signal," Mrs. A. B. Carwile.

Readings, "Today's Imperative Task," Mrs. J. W. Peak.

"Rally to the Final Struggle," Mrs. W. L. Nicholson.

"Abraham Lincoln Said," Mrs. R. G. Lee.

Chain of Prayer for those who have charge of law enforcement.

Plans will be made for the celebration of Frances Willard's heavenly birthday fifth Sunday night in February at the Methodist church.

The Year Books for 1920 will be distributed. Let every member be present to receive one.

MRS. J. L. MIMS, Pres.

Sunday Night at the Baptist Church.

Sunday was an all day rainy season and it seemed unfortunate for so many good things were in store at the various churches. But in cases like this we must agree to the saying that "Whatever is, is right." Those who ventured were fully repaid for the bravery they manifested.

Sunday evening the three McCravy brothers, Frank, Jack and James gave a most delightful and uplifting sacred concert. Mr. Frank McCravy is a singer of the Baptist Home Board Evangelistic Service and his brother Jack, assisted with the bass.

James McCravy is a senior at Furman, singing and also giving some beautiful solo and obligato music on the violin, being a violinist of distinction. The congregation was entranced for an hour or more by the trios, duets and solos and violin music by these three musicians and by the beautiful voice of Miss Miriam Norris who sang in a duet with Mr. Frank McCravy and a solo "O Dry Those Tears" with pipe organ accompaniment and violin obligato.

Mr. James McCravy was late, arriving on the 9 o'clock train, but Dr. Lee and the ingenious brothers very successfully kept the congregation waiting by entertaining them with a most edifying talk by the pastor and some congregational singing before the concert began.

At the close of the concert Mr. J. L. Mims arose and gave expression to the appreciation of the people for the visitors' presence and benefit derived from the occasion. It is one of the paradoxes of the world that in the place where applause can be most worthily bestowed it is often withheld.

MRS. J. L. MIMS.

Mr. James McCravy was late, arriving on the 9 o'clock train, but Dr. Lee and the ingenious brothers very successfully kept the congregation waiting by entertaining them with a most edifying talk by the pastor and some congregational singing before the concert began.

At the close of the concert Mr. J. L. Mims arose and gave expression to the appreciation of the people for the visitors' presence and benefit derived from the occasion. It is one of the paradoxes of the world that in the place where applause can be most worthily bestowed it is often withheld.

Mr. James McCravy was late, arriving on the 9 o'clock train, but Dr. Lee and the ingenious brothers very successfully kept the congregation waiting by entertaining them with a most edifying talk by the pastor and some congregational singing before the concert began.

At the close of the concert Mr. J. L. Mims arose and gave expression to the appreciation of the people for the visitors' presence and benefit derived from the occasion. It is one of the paradoxes of the world that in the place where applause can be most worthily bestowed it is often withheld.

Mr. James McCravy was late, arriving on the 9 o'clock train, but Dr. Lee and the ingenious brothers very successfully kept the congregation waiting by entertaining them with a most edifying talk by the pastor and some congregational singing before the concert began.

At the close of the concert Mr. J. L. Mims arose and gave expression to the appreciation of the people for the visitors' presence and benefit derived from the occasion. It is one of the paradoxes of the world that in the place where applause can be most worthily bestowed it is often withheld.

Honor Roll Edgefield High School.

For Fourth Month.

First Grade: George Erwin Cantelou, Robert Davis, Mary Gibson, Mareta Gibson, Sec Thompson, Cecil Thompson, Brooker Strom, Gladys Parks, Annie Nicholson, Ruth Kemp, Lee Jackson.

Second Grade: Helen Dunovant, Mary Holmes, Elizabeth Nicholson, Esther Rubenstein.

Third Grade: William Lynch, Janie Edwards, Elizabeth Kemp, Dorothy Marsh, Martha Stewart, Mary Lorene Townsend, Harry Paul, William Byrd.

Fourth Grade: (Average from 95 to 100). Fitzmaurice Byrd, John Nixon, J. R. Timmerman, Maysie Kemp. (Average from 90 to 95) Rudolph Davis, Ned Nicholson, Byrnes Ouzts, Rebecca Arthur, Eleanor Dunovant.

Fifth Grade: Effie Allen Lott, Margaret Strom, Martha Thurmond.

Seventh Grade: Willie Mae McCarty, Magdalene Redd.

Ninth Grade: Lillian Pattison.

Tenth Grade: Eugenia Brunson, Lina Brunson, Lois Mims, Bessie Dunovant.

Roofing! Roofing!!

Best roofing on the market. Can also supply cabinet mantels, frames, or will do any kind of cabinet work. Shop near depot.

E. P. ARTHUR.

Photograph work done at my residence.

MISS ELIZA MIMS.

Notice.

On and after February 1st, 1920, we will discontinue buying cotton at Mill door.

GRANITEVILLE MFG. CO. 1-28-3t

Special Salesman for Stock Room

We are sparing no pains or expense in looking out for welfare and service of our customers. We now have an experienced stock-room man, Mr. W. A. Berrian, who is in charge of our stock room, and will be glad to serve you. See him at the parts room window.

All Parts and Repairs are Strictly Cash
NO EXCEPTION

Yonce & Mooney

Kentucky Horses and Mules

Arrived Last Wednesday

This stock was selected by me in person on farms in Kentucky. I am sure I can suit you in anything you need. In a saddle or driving horse, and some with speed. Mules are young and broke, and most any size.

Bettis Cantelou

SPECIAL PRICES ON Building Material

Prices Subject to Change

"Titehold" Red Cedar Shingles	$ 9.50
Extra class Seattle Washington Red Cedar Shingles	8.75
Lime per barrel	2.10
Cement per sack	.90
Patent Plaster per ton	20.00
Brick, all hard	20.00

I am selling shingles at reduced rates because of the fact they were delayed by railroads one month.

M. A. TAYLOR

January 19, 1920

Pipe, Fittings, Pumps, Cylinders and Well Points

Due to strikes, in both steel and coal mines, and other unsettled conditions, it has been hard to secure material, but we have been very fortunate in having a good stock of Pipe, Fittings, etc.

Columbia Supply Company

823 West Gervais St., Columbia, S. C.

T. B. GRENEKER

Attorney at Law

Office in the

ADDISON LAW BUILDING

BUCKLEN'S IS THE ONLY GENUINE ARNICA SALVE

I have just received a car of cedar shingles worth $10.00 per thousand. E. S. JOHNSON.

FOR SALE: In car lots ONLY, North Carolina Seed Peanuts and Small White Spanish. All well selected stock.

Goff-Hutchison Merc. Co.,

Our Seeds

PRODUCE

Big Crops

Buy now and be prepared for the early planting of

OATS
WHEAT
RYE
BARLEY
CLOVER
(Crimson and White)
ALFALFA
VETCH
—Also—

Onion Sets
Turnips
Radishes
Cabbage
Lawn Grasses
Lettuce
Spinach
Peas

and all other seeds

LORICK & LOWRANCE

COLUMBIA, S. C.